These concepts no longer exist

Nothing.
No cycles.
No Daydreams.
It's over.

Image 17

Sit in peace.
It is all that remains in this place.

Image 18

Nothing remains, nothing stays.

But with no cycle to break, no shackles of time to hold us...

What stops us from turning back?

What stops us from beginning again?

Time is an illusion
we chose to believe in. But now we can see the truth.

You're ok now.
We can start again.

Image 21

France.
202X.

A wonderful painting isn't it?

Yeah?
I wasn't sure about depicting the scene,
but this was actually pretty hard.

Image 24

I'm glad you enjoyed it! I uh... Wasn't sure about this myself, to be honest

Yeah? Why not?

Image 25

Well uhm... I didn't know if you were into this stuff or not.
I uh... Just knew it isn't something I usually do so....

Really? You were talking so well I thought you had been here a ton of times!

Err... Well...

Image 26

I uh... Looked up things about it and tried to memorize it.
Sorry...

Why are you apologizing silly?

Huh?

You spent time and effort planning this.
Researching, looking up best hours, you even got me this choker earlier!

Well... Yeah... But-

Image 28

But nothing mister!
You did all thse good things and went through all this trouble for me!
Personally...

I think that's very sweet.
If our next dates after this one are half as good, I think we'll have a pretty fun time together!

D-Date?

Yeah dummy!
What did you think it was?

Image 30

I-I don't know I just...
D-Didn't want to assume or anything-

Hey

We're ok now silly.
You did great!

...Yeah?

Yeah!

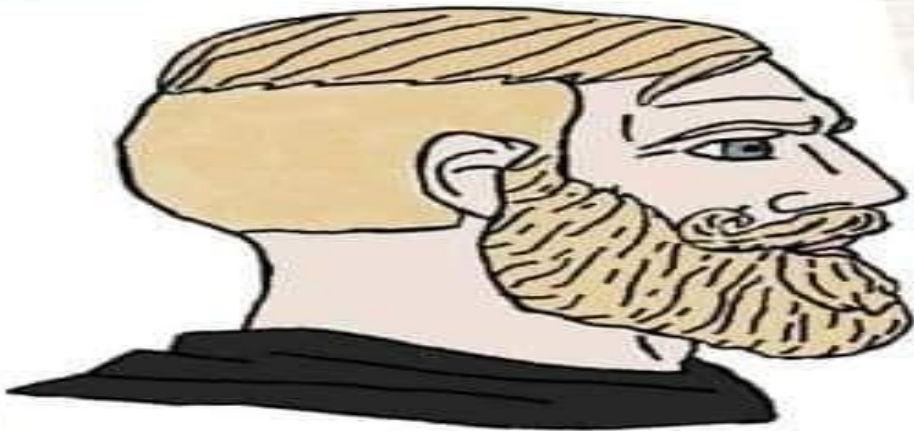

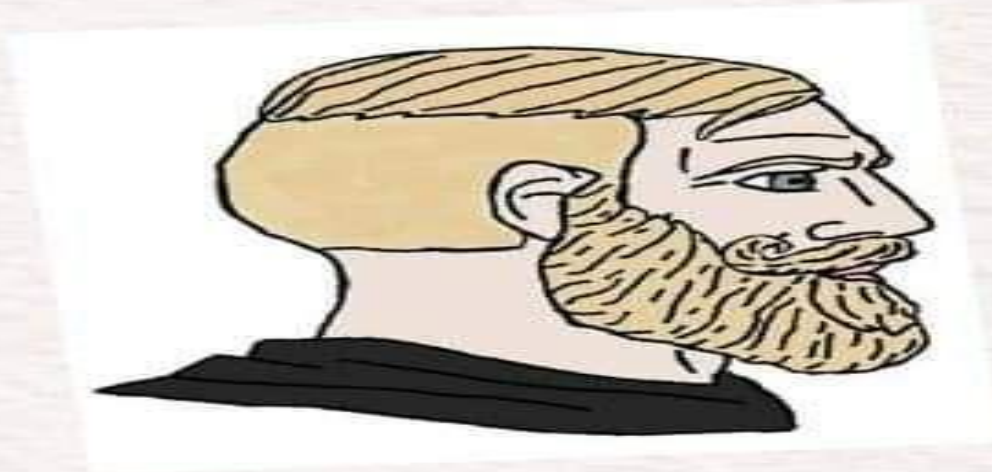

Image 32

Now let's go get that ice cream down the Seine!
Come on!
I'll pay this time!

Hehe... Yeah! I'm comin-

But sometimes there are mistakes too great to move on from.

It is not their fault,
But it was once,
And it will be one day.

They will suffer in eternity.
Always different people, Burdening the consequences of a single mistake.
Of a single person they now have no resemblance with.

Some would call it divine punishment.
Others would call it karma.
Some would call it unfair.

But perhaps "Hubris" would be the better description for it.
To meddle with forces beyond your control and pay the price across all existence.

How terribly human.
