

62nd CIC General Assembly

23–25 April 2015
Pravets, Bulgaria

“HEALTHY WILDLIFE, HEALTHY PEOPLE”

World Forum on Sustainable Hunting

– Working documents –

WORKING DOCUMENTS

1. Agenda and Programmes of the General Assembly
Programme of the General Assembly with Division and WG sessions	3
Agenda of the Opening Ceremony	7
Agenda of the Members' Assembly	8
Agenda of the Closing Ceremony & Members' Assembly	9
2. Activity Reports of the Divisions
Applied Sciences Division	10
Policy and Law Division	16
Culture Division	20
Working Group Artemis	21
Working Group Young Opinion	23
3. Finances
Accounting Results 2014	26
Treasurer's Report 2014	28
Auditors' Report 2014	29
Budget 2015	30
Balance Sheet 2014	32
4. Changes in Membership	33

“HEALTHY WILDLIFE, HEALTHY PEOPLE”

World Forum on Sustainable Hunting

12:30 – 14:00	Lunch	Hotel restaurant
14:00 – 17:00	Session: Joint Applied Science + Policy & Law Division “The Role of Hunters in Detecting and Managing Wildlife Diseases” Chair: Jan Heino, President of the Policy & Law Division Introduction by Jan Heino A review of geographical, economic, and conservation impact of wildlife diseases like avian influenza, African swine fever, and tuberculosis (Prof. Dr. Christian Gortázar, SaBio Research Group, Spain) The Role of Hunters in Managing Wildlife Diseases (Prof. Dr. Torsten Mörner, Department of Pathology and Wildlife Diseases, National Veterinary Institute, Uppsala, Sweden) The OIE/CIC initiative to manage wildlife diseases and establishing a network for the surveillance of wildlife diseases (Dr. Bernard Vallat, Director General of the World Organisation for Animal Health) The Economic Value of Game Meat (Prof. Dr. Torsten Mörner) Country Example on Monitoring Wildlife Disease (Dr. Károly Erdélyi, NÉBiH, Hungary) Panel Discussion: Chair invites comments on the wildlife diseases by country representatives (on stage) and participating individuals from audience	Hall Pravets
17:00 – 18:30	Session: Working Group Young Opinion Chair: Eloana Aichbichler, President of the WG Young Opinion Introduction by Eloana Aichbichler Scientific Research for sustainable hunt of woodcock in Italy (Marco Tuti, Università di Firenze, Italy) Assessment, improvement, and development of agricultural wildlife damage estimation methods (Imre Kovacs, Szent István University, Hungary) The Numbers Game in Wildlife Conservation: Changeability and framing of large mammal numbers in Zimbabwe (Edson Gandiwa, Chinhoyi University of Technology, Zimbabwe) Review and Outlook of Young Opinion Activities Elections	Hall Pravets