

CERTIFICATE

On the behalf of Editorial Board of Journal of Education, Culture and Society we hereby certify that paper: Self(ie)-esteem? – A manifestation of adolescent self-creating endeavours in the virtual space of Facebook, written by Lili Fejes-Vékássy (Péter Pázmány Catholic University, Faculty of Humanities and Social Science) has been positively reviewed and it will be published in Issue 2017/1 of the journal.

Journal of Education, Culture and Society is published to promote work of young academics in the field of humanities; however, the periodical accepts text written not only by students and doctoral candidates who are embarking on an academic career and who wish to publish their first research in English but also by post-doctoral researchers who are willing to share their knowledge, experience and studies for the sake of scientific development.

Journal of Education, Culture and Society is one of the high-score international scientific journals published in Poland and it is indexed in many international data bases such as: Index Copernicus (92,11 in the year 2015), ERIHplus, CEEOL, DOAJ, CEJSH, Journal Seek, BazHum.

The full and basic version of the journal is printed, copies are archived in Library of Congress.

Kamil Błaszczński, MA

Secretary of Journal

Education, Culture and Society 2017