Brief description of the completed short term study program:

Research about the role of Hungary and American Hungarians in the 1956-1960 American Presidential Republican campaigns. I collected new documents about the 1956 Hungarian refugees and how the Republican government tried to achieve their support. I made photocopy of files, which gives information about the election of Nixon for Vice President in 1956. I have almost 10 000 document's photocopies. Most of the document is connected to the Hungarian Refugee Committee. I made a presentation about the American Exhibition in Moscow in 1959.
