This certificate is awarded to Krisztián Pósch for being an active participant at the Political Psychology Networking Conference for the Post-Communist Region, November 25-27, 2011, hosted by the Central European University, organized by the Political Behavior Research Group (PolBeRG) with the support of the International Society of Political Psychology. We hereby acknowledge that the aforementioned presented two original research papers: "Ruptures of the Frozen Surface – The Changing Political Reality of the 2010 Elections and a Path Analysis of Voting Behavior", as part of the "Political Behavior" panel; and "Aware But Mistrustful – Hungarian Laypeople's Knowledge of Legal Terms, Support for Values of the Constitutional State and (Mis)trust in Jurisdiction" as part of the "Political Information" panel, November 26.

The participant also made a notable contribution to the success of the event by actively taking part in discussions during conference proceedings and making substantive comments to the research papers presented by other participants.

We hereby acknowledge the participant's contribution to the event as a sign of our gratitude and appreciation, and wish Krisztián Pósch further accomplishments and success in his future academic career.

Weith Paul Thomas, President of the Political Behavior Research Group
