

You are cordially invited to Károli Gáspár University's

"Inuit Thematic Day"

held within the framework of our Canadian Studies Forum lecture and Teacher Training Afternoon workshop series

Date: November 22nd, 2013

Venue: Károli Gáspár University, Faculty of Humanities
1088 Budapest, Reviczky u. 4., 2nd floor, room 222

Organizers: Dr Judit Nagy (nagy.judit@kre.hu)
Dr Miklós Vassányi (vassanyi.miklos@kre.hu)
Coordinator: Dóra Tóth (toth.dora@kre.hu)

14:00-14:15 Opening remarks

Brian Ebel, Counsellor for Political and Public Affairs, Embassy of Canada, Hungary
Dr Enikő Sepsi, Dean, Faculty of Humanities, Károli Gáspár University

14:15-15:30 Papers (to be followed by Discussion)

14:15 Miklós Vassányi: Arctic America through Medieval European Eyes: North America in the Icelandic Annals and the Greenland Deeds

14:45 Áron Bakos: Inuit Cannibalism - Myth or Reality?

15:15 Dávid Veress: Farley Mowat on Inuit Religious Beliefs

Coffee break

15:45-17:00 Teacher training event

Mátyás Bánhegyi and Judit Nagy: The Inuit in the English Classroom – workshop

Coffee break

17:15-20:00 Film screening and discussion

Film to be screened: Necessities of Life (2008) - directed by Benoît Pilon

Discussion moderated by Dóra Bernhardt and Judit Nagy