

June 6

9.00-9.45	Registration
9.45-10.00	Opening
10.00-11.00	Plenary talk I: Casper de Groot Depictives and Focus in Uralic Languages
11.-11.30	coffee break
	General session (room 438)	General session (room 428)	Workshop: Syntax–Information Structure Interface in Finno-Ugric (room 110)	Workshop: Uralic Essive (room 106)
11.30-12.00	Petra Hebedová Estonian illative as a category	Nikolett Mus Question words with predicative function in Tundra Nenets	Anders Holmberg OV order in Finnish without movement	Emmi Hynönen A Dialect-Based Approach to the Finnish Essive Case
12.00-12.30	Seppo Kittilä Ablative as a marker of benefaction in Finnish	Melani Wratil Intermediate stages in the grammaticalization of Northern Samoyedic objective affixes		Elena Markus, Fedor Rozhanskiy Essive in contemporary Votic
12.30-13.00	Eero Voutilainen Exploring the construal of change in Finnish translative expressions	Laura Horváth Joidenkin konverbirakenteiden kieliopillistumisesta udmurtissa, tataarin kirjakielessä ja misääritataarissa	Maria Vilkuna Something verb-final in Finnish: The case of conditional clauses	Timothy Feist The Essive Case in Skolt Saami
13.00-14.30	lunch
14.30-15.00	Minna Jaakola Adverbs of certainty in Finnish	Helen Plado The choice of the predicate form of Estonian purpose clause	Katalin É. Kiss Differential object-verb agreement and information structure	Rigina Turunen Functions of Erzya Translative in Nonverbal Predication
15.00-15.30	Jutta Salminen From doubt to assumption: The Finnish verb epäillä as an example of a constructional meaning change	Tiina Rüütmaa Eesti kõrvallause konditsionaali ungari vastetest	András Bárány Non-specific indefinites and Hungarian verb paradigms	Sirkka Saarinen Expressing temporary state of being in Mari – or how to manage without an essive case
15.30-16.00	Jaakko Leino Suomen kielen sirkumstantiaalit ja kehysrelevanssi: aika, paikka ja tapa argumentteina vs adjunkteina	Szilvia Magyar L2 production of native Finnish speakers, in the light of the negative (and positive) transfer (target language is Hungarian)	Susanna Virtanen Transitivity in Eastern Mansi: An information structural approach	Lotta Jalava Functions of the essive-translative in Tundra Nenets
16.00-16.30	coffee break

16.30-17.00	Merlijn De Smit Structure, constructions and the locus of language contact. The case of Old Finnish necessities	Jari Sivonen Miten konteksti disambiguii konstruktion? Tapaustutkimus suomen kielen abstraktin liikkeen konstruktiosta mennä V-mA-An 'tehdä jotakin epätoivottavaa'	Erika Asztalos Word order versus stress as means of object focusing in Udmurt	Andrey Filchenko "Essive" in Eastern Khanty
17.00-17.30	Liina Lindström, Kristel Uibo Variation in necessity constructions in Estonian dialects	Minna Sääskilahti Direktiivit opettajan opaskirjoissa	Anja Arnhold Syntactic flexibility and prosody in marking given/new in Finnish	Sándor Szeverényi Depictive in Nganasan
17.30-18.00	Elina Ahola Meaning and usage of the verb küleş in Mari language	Yrjö Lauranto Suomen kielen optatiivirakenne ja direktiiviksi kielipiillistuminen	Szilvia Németh The role of anaphora in topic coding in Northern Mansi
18.00-18.30	Péter Pomozi, Fanni Karácsony Infinitival constructions with an unmarked object in old Hungarian and Mari. A cross-linguistic study	Bernadett Biró, Katalin Sipőcz Syntactic variation in Mansi ditransitive constructions	Elsi Kaiser On the interpretation of generic 'zero subjects' in Finnish: Syntactic and information-structural considerations
18.30-19

June 7

9.00-10.00	Plenary talk II: Maria Vilkuna On the so-called so-called Finnish Passive
10.00-10.30	coffee break
	General session (room 438)	General session (room 428)	Workshop: Referential devices in Uralic and adjacent languages devices (room 110)	Workshop: Previous knowledge and utterance design (room 106)
10.30-11.00	Zsuzsanna Gécseg Topics in Focus Position in Hungarian	Ilmari Ivaska Structural typicalities in advanced learner Finnish: Usage-based approach towards variety-specific multiword sequences	Renate Pajusalu South Estonian demonstratives: Changing or disappearing?	Kirsi Laanesoo Clausal kus ('where') interrogatives targeting epistemic congruence in second position
11.00-11.30	András Imrényi Topic elicitation. A new look at Hungarian multiple questions	Dirk Müller Intra-textual referring: referential procedures and linguistic devices – a contrastive pilot study on Estonian and Finnish news texts	Gerson Klumpp, Nikolay Kuznetsov On Komi demonstrative pronouns	Helle Metslang, Karl Pajusalu, Külli Habicht Do I guess or ask? Epistemic modality as a source of interrogativity

11.30-12.00	Nele Salveste Intonation of different syntactic structures in relation to different semantic contexts	Viola Baumann, Éva Dömötör Context (in)dependence of Hungarian discourse markers. The case of asztán	Marja-Liisa Helasvuo, Nobufumi Inaba Functions of detached NPs in Old Finnish texts	Maike-Liis Rebane, Tiit Hennoste, Sulev Iva Other-initiated self-repair in everyday interaction in Võro language
12.00-12.30	Heete Sahkai Verb-framing vs. satellite-framing clauses and Information Structure in Estonian	Nóra Kugler The negativity of Hungarian modal adverbs (aligha, bajosan, nehezen)		Krista Mihkels Previous knowledge and the format of repair-initiating polar questions
12.30-14.00	lunch
14.00-14.30	Petar Kehayov On mood and modality in language death: Evidence from Finnic	Marja Leinonen Borrowed function and discourse words in Komi	Chiara Monzoni, Ritva Laury Making referents accessible in multi-party interaction	Tiit Hennoste, Andriela Rääbis Multiple directives in everyday Estonian interaction
14.30-15.00	Miina Norvik Usage and development of LEE(NE)- verbs in Finnic	Boglárka Janurik A case of syntactic variation: Double morphology in adpositional structures (in Erzya–Russian bilingual discourse)	Katri Priiki Completing and interpreting: Functions of the third person pronoun hän ‘he, she’ in reference to a co-participant in spoken Finnish	Auli Hakulinen, Marja-Leena Sorjonen Responding to polar interrogatives in Finnish
15.00-15.30	Gábor Alberti, Judit Kleiber Mood and Modality in Hungarian	Triin Todesk The augmentative grade of verbal comparison in Komi	Marja Etelämäki Demonstratives and actions: What is the Finnish demonstrative tuo doing in requests?	Riina Kasterpalu Previous Knowledge and Utterance Design: The Case of Estonian jaajaa
15.30-16.00	Márta Csepregi Evidentialiaali hantin murteissa	Olga Schitz Attribute-Noun Agreement in the Uralic Languages: Evidence from Udmurt and Baltic Finnic Languages	Maria Reile Spatial opposition, visual accessibility and contrast – an experiment with Estonian demonstratives	Discussion
16.00-16.30	coffee break
16.30-17.30	Plenary talk III: Leelo Keevallik The temporality of grammar and its coordination with the body
19.00	Reception at the restaurant Atlantis (Narva mnt. 2)

June 8

	General session (room 438)	Workshop: The aspect of aspect (room 428)	Workshop: Referential devices in Uralic and adjacent languages devices (room 106)
9.30-10.00	Kristiina Kortelainen Ei ole kaikki muumit laaksossa – produktiivinen suomen kielen idiomikonstruktio	Gábor Tolcsvai-Nagy Temporal factors of verbal aspect in Hungarian	Elsi Kaiser Impersonal and generic reference: A cross-linguistic look at Finnish and English narratives

10.00-10.30	Maria Sarhema Proprieta appellaatiiviksi. Etunimien appellaatiivistuminen suomen slangiyhdyssanoissa	Tuomas Huomo Temporal frames of reference and the function of delimitatives in Finnish	Helen Hint Centering on overt and zero pronouns in Estonian
10.30-11.00	Milla Uusitupa Murteet ja lauseopit törmäyskurssilla. Tutkimus rajakarjalaismurteiden avoimista persoonaviittauksista	Helena Metslang On aspect's place in the Estonian differential argument marking system	Szilárd Tátrai, Krisztina Laczkó Deixis and the referential interpretation of conversational narratives
11.00-11.30	coffee break
11.30-12.00	Maximilian Murmann The development of non-canonical argument structures in Finnish	Edit Takács The construal of aspect – The interplay of boundedness and transitivity in Hungarian	Virve-Anneli Vihman, Kriste Lauk Pick it up: Referential Devices in Estonian Child-Directed Speech
12.00-12.30	Nikolett F. Gulyás Demoting the subject: A functional distribution of impersonal constructions in Udmurt and Mari	Mari Siirainen Different conceptualizations in expressing "X becomes Y" in Finnish	Hanna Jokela Finnish demonstrative tämä from L2 learner's perspective
12.30-13.00	Gwen Eva Janda Ugric Possessive Suffixes in Non-Possessive Functions	Tiina Onikki-Rantajääskö Constructions of continuous aspect in Finnish: Contextual comparison	Maarja Sepp Acquisition of Spanish L2: Estonian referential devices and Spanish articles
13.00-14.30	lunch
14.30-15.00	Anni Jürine The development of complex grams in Estonian		Réka Zayzon Deictic and anaphoric grounding by possessive affixes in Nganasan
15.00-15.30	Merilin Miljan Heterogeneous case distribution in NPs in Estonian: puzzles for a theory of case		Svetlana Edygarova Possessive suffixes as referential devices in Udmurt
15.30-16.00	coffee break
16.00-17.00	Plenary talk IV: Gerson Klumpp Four Functions of Komi Possessive Suffixes
17.00-17.15	Closing		