Dear Zsófia Kovács

Following your application for extension of your studies at the University of Copenhagen, we are pleased to inform you that we have extended your period of study from 01 09 2009 to 30 06 2010.

You have been accepted into the following department(s):
Agricultural economy.

Please note courses have different starting dates.

Most of the courses start in the last week of January and the last week of August.

It is your responsibility to check this.

Please refer to the online course catalogue and course registration information at www.studies.ku.dk and check the departments' websites as well.

The status as an Exchange student gives admission to full-time studies in the department(s) and for the period noted above and you are expected to do a full time course load of 30 ECTS each semester during your stay. Exchange Students cannot earn an academic degree with the University of Copenhagen.

Yours sincerely,

Daria Irena Markov
