Letter of admission

Dear Zsófia Kovács,

Following your application for admission to the University of Copenhagen, we are pleased to notify you of your admission as a Erasmus Student under the agreement between the University of Copenhagen and Szent István Egyetem, Gödöllő from 24 08 2009 to 31 01 2010.

Please note courses have different starting dates.

Most of the courses start in the last week of January and the last week of August.

It is your responsibility to check this.

Please refer to the online course catalogue and course registration information at www.studies.ku.dk and check the departments' websites as well.

You have been admitted into the following department(s):
Agricultural economy, Psychology, Sociology, Philosophy.

Please find important information regarding your studies from Agricultural economy:

We are sorry but we are not able to admit you to the Faculty of Life Sciences due to your limited background in Agricultural Economics. We have however admitted you so you can come to the University of Copenhagen and study at the other departments that have accepted you.

Please find important information regarding your studies from Law:

Dear Zsófia,

I regret to tell you that we cannot give you admission to the Faculty of Law, due to two reasons. First of all, your legal qualifications are quite limited. Secondly, because we do not offer any courses taught in English within the field Labour Law in the autumn semester 2009.

Kind regards,

Lene Ebbesen

International officer
