

Please note that your admission is contingent on your selection for the exchange program by your home university and you are expected to do a full time course load of 30 ECTS each semester during your stay. The status as a Erasmus Student gives admission to full-time studies in the department(s) and for the period noted above. Erasmus Student cannot earn an academic degree with the University of Copenhagen.

Student ID-number and student ID-card

Your student ID-number is 7302880004. This number will be your primary means of identification at the University of Copenhagen. You will use this number, along with your student ID-card, to register for exams and use the University libraries. In order to receive a student ID-card, you must return the enclosed ID card form along with a photo to the address specified in the form as soon as possible. You can then pick up your Student ID-card at the International Office upon your arrival.

University E-mail

You have been assigned an e-mail account at the University of Copenhagen. Your e-mail account is activated 24 hours after admission. You need your student ID-number as well as your PIN code to access your e-mail account. Please note that when entering your student ID-number, you must leave out the hyphen (-). We will use this e-mail address to contact you both prior to and during your stay in Copenhagen, so please make sure to check your University of Copenhagen account regularly.

Housing

You have not applied for housing and will therefore not be offered housing by the International Office. Please refer to <http://studies.ku.dk/housing> for information about how to find housing in Copenhagen.

Pre-Semester Danish Language Course

You have not applied for the Pre-semester Danish Language course (3 weeks in January or August).

Mentor

We will contact you by e-mail (the e-mail address assigned to you by the University of Copenhagen) and give you the contact information of your mentor prior to your arrival. In case that you should not have heard from your mentor or us within two weeks of your planned date of arrival, please feel free to contact us at : int-mentor@adm.ku.dk

Please note that we cannot guarantee that a mentor will be assigned to you as the mentor system is a volunteer service provided by Danish students.

You MUST notify the International office immediately, should you decide to cancel your stay here.

Sincerely,

Daria Irena Gziut
