DIPLOMA RESULTS

To be eligible for graduation from Corvinus University of Budapest two-thirds of the credits must be obtained at Corvinus. The qualification of the diploma is represented by a complex grade (calculated to two decimal points in all cases) determined from the overall credit-weighted GPA achieved by the student (single weight), the grade obtained at the comprehensive and complex examinations (if applicable, single weight) and the mathematical average of the grades obtained for the Thesis Defence (the grade/s/ given by the reviewer/s/ and the grade achieved at the oral thesis defence) (double weight).

Qualification	Grade
	Pass with honours*
between 4.81 and 5.00	excellent between 4.51 and 4.80	very good between 3.51 and 4.50	good between 2.51 and 3.50	satisfactory
between 2.00 and 2.50	pass

*An honours diploma is issued to students starting their studies in or after September 2013, who achieve an excellent (5) grade on their Thesis Defence (i.e. final examination), on the mandatory comprehensive examinations and complex examinations closing specialization(s) and qualification(s) (if applicable), all other last valid grades are at least a good (4) and their diploma qualification is "excellent" (see table above) and all the grades indicated in the registration book/master file are at least an average (3). An honours degree cannot be issued if the student has at least one subject with the "incomplete" or "did not take examination" remarks, an exception to this being the physical education courses. When determining entitlement to an honours diploma in case of students in subdivided master's programs the grades received in compulsory subjects over 120 credits are not taken into consideration.
