

Youthpass

With this document we certify that Eva Gurka took part in a project called Raising for a change. Fundraising in NGO. It was a training course. The project was hosted by Sempre a Frente Foundation.

Within Erasmus+, a training course is a project where youth workers and youth leaders come together for several days to develop their knowledge, skills, and attitudes on a certain theme. The daily programme of the course is based on learning objectives and facilitated by experienced trainers. The training courses promote the initiative and creativity of participants and have a direct impact on their future youth work or youth policy activities, such as organising quality projects and providing intercultural and non-formal learning experiences for young people.

Altogether, 16 people took part in the project.

The overall aim and specific objectives of the project:

The main objective of the project was to support people working with youth in their professional and personal development: to equip them with the knowledge and tools necessary to work, among others, in the field of fundraising, social inclusion, coaching, thanks to which cooperation between the organization and young people - participants and recipients of activities will run professionally.

Main contents and activities of the project:

The training involved 2 modules, thanks to which participants acquired multidimensional competences, supporting them in the field of youth work and fundraising.

1. Tools and practical aspects of fundraising - cooperation with partners and including members of the organization in the context of the organization's goals and activities.
2. Elements of coaching - a support module focused on learning about the behavior of young people, their understanding and coping with difficult situations at work.

MOBILITY OF YOUTH WORKERS

Learning mobility projects of youth workers support the professional development of youth workers by enabling them to acquire new skills and professional experiences. The projects may include transnational activities such as seminars, training courses, contact-making events, study visits and job shadowing periods abroad. The projects also contribute to strengthening the quality and the role of youth work in Europe.

Erasmus+ is the European Union's programme for boosting skills and employability through activities organised in the field of education, training, youth, and sport. Youth activities under Erasmus+ aim to improve the key competences, skills and employability of young people, promote young people's active participation in the society, their social inclusion and well-being, and foster improvements in youth work and youth policy at local, national and international level.
