Dear Virág:

Congratulations!!

The Committee on Admissions has approved your admission to Calvin College for the 2018 Interim!

We are delighted that you were selected for participation in the Calvin College – Karoli Gaspar University Program, which is no small feat. We are looking forward to you continuing to pursue your interests and talents while at Calvin. We welcome you as a participant in the Department of State Exchange Visitor Program in the category of Student Non-Degree.

College years set the course of one's life in many ways. At Calvin, you will receive education that will open your mind while enriching it, strengthen your faith while stretching it, and affirm your individual gifts as well as honing them. We are hoping that your Calvin experience will help you make significant contributions in the lives of those around you and bring renewal to the world in which we live. Additionally, we look forward to the ways in which your talents will enrich this community.

We are pleased that you are considering Calvin. On behalf of Calvin's students, faculty, and staff, congratulations and welcome!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Ben Arendt, PhD
Director of Admissions
