

CASPA seminar and workshop in Tallinn, 4-8 October 2021

4th October 2021/ CASPA SEMINAR: NON-TECHNICAL CYBERSKILLS AND CYBERSECURITY AWARENESS IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIONS

Format: hybrid

Room: U01-202, TalTech, Ehitajate tee 5.

9.00 – 9.30 Coffee and registration (Voluntary vaccination wristbands also available)

9.30 – 10.00 Welcome and introduction

OPENING: TANEL KERIKMÄE – DIRECTOR OF DEPARTMENT OF LAW, TALTECH

INTRODUCING THE PROJECT: AGNES KASPER & ANNA-MARIA OSULA

10.00 – 11.30 Module 1 – Cyber awareness raising: trainers' perspectives

- DANIEL VÁCZI (Cyex OÜ) - Paradigm shift in cyber awareness
- KAIE MAENNEL (TalTech) – Lessons learned from cyber exercises
- KOCZKA FERENC (Eszterházy Károly University, Hungary) - Protection issues in higher education systems

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45- 13.15 Module 2 – Perils of information societies

- MACIEJ GÓRA (Kosciuszko Institute, Poland) - An overview of cyberattacks on public administration
- HOLGER MÖLDER - Global Knowledge Warfare - Information Operations in the Cyber Age
- PÉTER BÁNYÁSZ and ANDRÁS TÓTH (National University of Public Service) - A sentiment analysis of the civic attitude in connection with the coronavirus vaccines (collective presentation)

13.15-14.30 Lunchbreak

14.30 – 16.00 Module 3 – Public administrations in the time of digital transformation

- EWELINA KASPRZYK (Kosciuszko Institute, Poland) - GovTech rules: Accelerated digital transformation and how the public administration might harness its potential
- MOLNÁR ANNA (National University of Public Service, Hungary) - EU cyber security ecosystem and cyberdiplomacy
- OLGA SHUMILO (TalTech) – Ethics, technology and public administrations

Evening program – Tallinn Old Town sightseeing for CASPA guests (starting at 17.00 at Pikk Hermann).
Bus departs from outside TalTech Main Building (U01) at 16:30.

5th October, 2021/ RESEARCH SEMINARS

Format: physical

Rooms: SOC-312 and SOC-210 TalTech, Akadeemia tee. 3.

9.30 – 11.30 Student research seminar (SOC-312)

Name	Title of presentation
Tóth Rebeka (MA)	Development opportunities for cyber security degree programs
Dub Máté (MA)	Dangers and vulnerabilities in data and information security. The importance of privacy enhancing technologies.
Bianka Magas (MA)	The new means of information awareness training

Advisers: Agnes Kasper, Maria Claudia Solarte Vasquez, Aleksí Kajander

CASPA partners also participate – to be agreed

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45-12.30 Cyber 9/12 Seminar (SOC-210) Aleksí Kajander

12.30- 14.00 Lunchbreak

14.00-16.00 Student research seminar (room SOC-312)

Name	Title of presentation
Katona Gergő (MA)	Cybersecurity challenges of autonomous vehicles
Nimsz Vivien (MA)	The open source intelligence in the organizations
Baglyos Sándor (MA)	The relevance of information security auditing, with particular focus on assessing the information security maturity of organisations

Advisers: Shaymaa Mamdouh Khalil, Agnes Kasper, Maria Claudia Solarte Vasquez

CASPA partners also participate – to be agreed

6th October, 2021/ STUDY VISIT

Format: physical

Place: e-Estonia Briefing Centre, address Valukoja 8, Tallinn

9.00-13.15 Study visit to e-Estonia Briefing Center (bus organized from Taltech)

7th October, 2021/ CASPA WORKSHOP: NATIONAL PROBLEM PERCEPTIONS AND INSTITUTIONAL ANSWERS TO CYBERSECURITY CHALLENGES

Chair: Anna-Maria Osula

Format: hybrid (subject to registration and Chatam House rules)

Room: U05-301, TalTech, Ehitajate tee 3, Tallinn

8.45-9.15 Coffee and registration

9.15-9.30 Welcome and introduction

9.30-11.00 Roundtable with experts from Estonian, Polish and Hungarian public administrations

Participants:

Prof. Dr. Zoltán Rajnai, National Cyber Coordinator of Hungary

Mr Robert Kośla, Director of the Department of Cybersecurity at the Chancellery of the Prime Minister of Poland

Mr Raul Rikk, National Cyber Security Policy Director, Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications, Estonia

Representative of Department of Cybersecurity, Ministry of Justice of Poland (TBC)

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-13.00 Roundtable with experts from Estonian, Polish and Hungarian public administrations

Participants:

Mr Tamás Horváth, Hungarian MoFA and Trade Coordinator for Cyber Issues

Mr Siim Alatalu, Director of EU CyberNet, Information System Authority, Estonia

Mr Thorwald-Eirik Kaljo, Chief Analyst, Estonian Information System Authority

Representative of Department of the Information Society, Marshal's Office of the Podkarpackie Voivodeship, Poland (TBC)

Representative of NASK, Poland (TBC)

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 Optional and individual consultations, meetings (offline)

19.00 –22:00 Workshop dinner at restaurant R14 (Return bus to guest hotels departs at 22:00)

8th October, 2021/ CASPA WORKSHOP: EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVES ON NON-TECHNICAL CYBERSECURITY TRAINING AND EDUCATION

Chair: Agnes Kasper, Maria Claudia Solarte-Vasquez

Format: hybrid (subject to registration and Chatam House rules)

Room: U05-408, TalTech, Ehitajate tee 5, Tallinn

9.30-10.00 Coffee and registration

10.00-11.30 Panel discussion: Impact of digital change on educational needs of public servants

Panelists:

Joe Burton, University of Waikato, Marie Curie Fellow at Université Libre de Bruxelles

Anu Baum, Centre for Digital Forensics and Cyber Security, TalTech

Gregor Schaffrath, European Security and Defence College

Representative of NASK, Poland (TBC)

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45-13.15 Panel discussion: Non-technical cybersecurity competences – What are those? Who needs them?

Panelists:

Birgy Lorenz, Centre for Digital Forensics and Cyber Security, TalTech

Csaba Krasznay, Institute of Cybersecurity, National University of Public Service, Hungary

Katrin Nyman-Metcalf, E-Governance Academy, Estonia

Fabio Di Franco, ENISA (TBC)

Horatius Garban, European Security and Defence College

Andrzej Kozłowski, Kosciuszko Institute, Poland

13.15-14.00 Lunchbreak

14.00-15.00 Student perspectives and roundtable discussion of the CASPA model

15.00-15.15 Conclusions of the Workshop

15.15 Distribution of Certificates to CASPA participants