

Sessions

I. Panel

Chair: Tibor Tarnóczy

Room: New Building, Amphitheatre

15:00 – 16:30	1. Goran Karanovic (University of Rijeka, Croatia), Bogdan Narcis Firtescu (University of Oradea, Romania), Laurentiu Droj (University of Oradea, Romania): Influence of COVID-19 Pandemic on Firm Efficiency in Pharmaceutical Industry: Evidence from Central and Eastern European Countries 2. Zoltán András Dániel (University of Pannonia, Hungary), Molnár Tamás (University of Pannonia, Hungary): Global Financial Crises in The Hungarian Labour Market - Regional Analysis 3. József Fogarasi (Partium Christian University, Romania; Óbuda University, Hungary), Enikő Vigh (Partium Christian University, Romania; Institute of Agricultural Economics, Hungary), Krisztina Miskó (Institute of Agricultural Economics, Hungary), Péter Karácsony (Óbuda University, Hungary): Investment Support of Irrigation Developments 4. Tibor Tarnóczy (University of Debrecen, Hungary), Veronika Fenyves (University of Debrecen, Hungary), Edit Veres (Partium Christian University, Romania): Efficiency Analysis of Hungarian-Romanian Border Counties' Companies
16:30 – 17:00	Coffee Break
17:00 – 18:30	1. Sándor Bozsik (University of Miskolc), Judit Szemán (University of Miskolc), Gábor Süveges (University of Miskolc): Effectiveness of covid-crisis management in the eastern countries of European Union with special regard to the fiscal and monetary policy tools 2. Lóránd István Králik (Partium Christian University, Romania), Erzsébet Szász, (Partium Christian University, Romania): Opportunities to Increase VAT Collection Efficiency in Romania 3. Tibor Tarnóczy (University of Debrecen, Hungary), Edina Kulcsár (Partium Christian University, Romania): Application of Stochastic Frontier Analysis in the Romanian Food Industry 4. Veronika László (University of Pannonia, Hungary), András Dániel Zoltán (University of Pannonia, Hungary): Food Price Volatility - Reasons Behind and Affect in SMEs And Consumers in Hungary

II. Panel

Chair: Mária-Dalma Hámos

Room: New Building, P22

15:00 – 16:30	1. Andor Pajrok (Eötvös József College, Hungary): The Role of Cost Accounting in the Period of Economic Crisis – Empirical Study from the Hungarian Hotel Industry 2. Murtaza Shah Ali (University of Debrecen, Hungary), Usman Zafar (University of Debrecen, Hungary), Asif Mahmood (University of Debrecen, Hungary), Edina Molnár (University of Debrecen, Hungary): Study Exploring the Role of Loan Default Ratio among SME Sector of Pakistan 3. Szilvia Módosné Szalai (Janos Selye University, Slovakia), Jenei Szonja (Janos Selye University, Slovakia): Symbiosis of CSR and PR during the pandemic. The Impact of CSR on Employee Loyalty Enhanced by Internal Marketing Communication Tools 4. Patrícia Fanni Porkoláb (University of Pannonia, Hungary), Eszter Németh (University of Pannonia, Hungary), Zoltán András Dániel (University of Pannonia, Hungary): University Incubation Ecosystems and the Social Tensions of Financial Crises
16:30 – 17:00	Coffee Break
17:00 – 18:30	1. Ferencz Szilágyi (Partium Christian University, Romania): Center/periphery Dichotomy in the Partium (Crişana) region, Romania 2019 2. Artur Lakatos (Partium Christian University, Romania): Irrational Decisions, Unethical Commercial Practices: Behavioral Economics and the Black Marketing 3. Mária-Dalma Hámos (Partium Christian University, Romania): Higher Cost Implications, as a Barrier to the Implementation of Green Supply Chain Management 4. Éva Szabo (University of Oradea, Romania): The “Price of Education” and the Economy