

Certificate of Experience

This is to certify that

Tamás László, student at Central European University (CEU, Student ID: 2406928), has worked with The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw) on the project 'Tobacco taxation in Eastern Europe', within the framework of the CEU Policy Lab. He worked on the project from October 2024 to April 2025. During this period, he was actively involved in literature review, data collection and data visualisation, formulation of policy recommendations, and presentation of the results.

He has proven to be a reliable and independent contributor, completing assigned tasks with attention to detail and precision. The project also required strong teamwork and interpersonal skills, including effective communication with all stakeholders (student team, CEU, and wiiw).
