Projekt Organizer(s) Since 1956 "Ecumenical Youth Services - EYS" have taken place under the roof of the Evangelical Youth. EYS is a volunteer work camp program in the tradition of the Ecumenical International Camps developed and organized by the World Council of Churches (WCC) after the Second World War.

International Youth Work International encounters, exchange programs, and other types of projects in international youth work open-up cross-cultural fields of experience to young people in which they can actively and responsibly work towards understanding themselves, as well as people from other cultures, and societal topics.

Project description On the Protestant "Luisenkirchhöfen" in Berlin-Charlottenburg, which is a historical monument, the volunteers carried out monument preservation work such as the renovation of old fencing, cleaning gravestones and cutting back plants. The group was also involved in and around the church building in Alt-Lietzow. Apart from that the group did the housekeeping and cooking and designed their free time autonomously.
