

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that

Kitti Vojter

of the University of Szeged

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union participated in the Twelfth International Winter School in Finno-Ugric Studies, held in Uppsala, Sweden, from 5 to 10 February 2024. The Winter School consisted of a course on Earliest Written Finnic and Old Finnish (20 teaching hours), a workshop on language revitalization in theory and practice (6 teaching hours), a workshop on modelling language contact and AI (6 teaching hours), a colloquium (6 teaching hours), guest lectures on Turkic, Paleo-Siberian, Negation in Uralic languages and beyond (6 teaching hours). This certificate is to confirm that the student in question successfully passed the examinations connected to all the individual courses and gave a presentation in the student colloquium. The participation is worth 5 ECTS points.

Rogier Blokland

Uppsala University

rogier.blokland@moderna.uu.se

Sándor Szeverényi

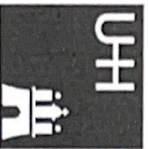

University of Szeged

szevers@hung.u-szeged.hu

Participating universities:

Eötvös Loránd
University

University of Hamburg

University of Helsinki

Ludwig
Maximilian
University of Munich

University of Latvia

University of Szeged

University of Tartu

University of Turku

Uppsala
University

University of Vienna

remodus.univie.ac.at