Chief Examiner

Level B2

The Euroexams are suites of English language examinations based upon the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

At this level the language user can...

Reading

read with a large degree of independence, adapting style and speed of reading to different texts and purposes, and making use of a broad reading vocabulary to comprehend particular attitudes or viewpoints.

Writing

write clearly and with detail on personal experiences and subjects of personal interest, and pass on information or give reasons for or against a particular point of view.

Listening

understand extended speech and follow complex lines of argument on familiar topics, including the ability to understand media products intended for a general audience and delivered in standard dialect.

Speaking

maintain regular interaction with native speakers and take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts. The user can present clear and detailed descriptions on subjects of personal interest or explain a viewpoint giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

Euroexam International is a member of EALTA (European Association for Language Testing and Assessment), ICC (The International Language Association), an associate member of EAQUALS (Evaluation and Accreditation of Quality Language Services), and an affiliate member of ALTE (Association of Language Testers in Europe).
