Dear Inez,

Thank you for your submission to ICHAMS 2024.

Following review by our Independent Review Panel, we are pleased to inform you that your submission entitled 'A new potential therapeutic target in inflammatory retinopathy' has been accepted for Oral Presentation at the conference. Your abstract was among the top 12 highest scoring, congratulations!

The format of your session will be a 10-minute presentation, with 5 minutes of questions from judges afterwards. The highest scoring oral presentation will be awarded a certificate at our gala. The judging criteria will include the quality of your research, your presentation skills, and the design of your presentation.

*Please bring your presentation on a USB when you register at the conference, AND email it to ichamsresearch@rcsi.ie before February 12th.

Details on how to create an oral presentation can be found here: <https://www.ichams.org/undergraduate-abstract-submission>

Again, congratulations on your acceptance. We look forward to meeting you at ICHAMS 2024!

Yours Sincerely,

Bhavya Kapoor and Domonique Proceviat
