

INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT AND SUSTAINABILITY

This is to certify that the student MONIKA HAMUTH

☒ successfully attended

☐ not successfully attended the Erasmus+ Blended Intensive Programme organized by the University of Udine (Italy) together with the FH Joanneum University of Applied Sciences (Austria), the University Jonkoping (Sweden), and the Széchenyi István University, Gyor (Hungary).

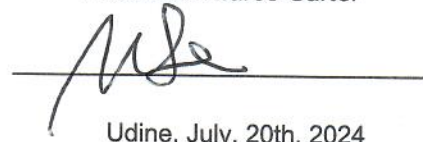

The final score obtained by the student is: 27 / 30.

In the following, the syllabus of the school:

1. Understand the principles of international operations management;
2. Analyze and evaluate international operations management strategies;
3. Evaluate the impact of sustainability on international operations management;
4. Develop a strategic and practical understanding of operations management in the global context;
5. Understand and analyze the ethical considerations related to international operations management.

The program is worth 6 ECTS that could be converted and recognized by the home university according to its rules.

The Coordinator of the Programme
Professor Marco Sartor

Udine, July, 20th, 2024