Marcell Bogner
Budapest University of Technology and Economics
Budapest, Hungary

Dear Marcell,

Congratulations! I am pleased to offer you an appointment as a Trainee my laboratory at Scripps Research. I am confident you will find the scientific environment at Scripps Research to be highly engaging and truly world-class, where teams of researchers work to solve challenging problems and improve human health.

Confirming our recent discussion, your start date will be on or about June 17, 2024 and end on or about September 15, 2024. In addition, this letter confirms our mutual understanding of the following:

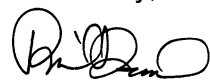

1. Your J-1 visa sponsorship will be provided by CETUSA
2. Your funding in the amount of $3,666 USD per month will be provided by scholarships and personal funds. You will provide health insurance coverage that meets J-1 visa requirements. As a J-1 visa holder, you confirm that you will maintain health insurance coverage as required by law for yourself and any family members throughout your stay.
3. This appointment is expected to last 3-4 months.
4. The International Services Office (ISO) at Scripps Research will collaborate and coordinate with your J-1 visa sponsor. You can find information about a variety of things in the San Diego area such as housing and transportation at www.scripps.edu/iso

Marcell, I am excited that you have decided to join us, and I hope you will find your time here to be challenging, productive, and enjoyable.

To indicate your acceptance of this offer and the terms and conditions set forth in this letter, please sign and date this letter in the space provided below and return it to Shelly Gassert via email at mgassert@scripps.edu.

Again, congratulations, and we look forward to welcoming you to the team!

Yours truly,

Phil S. Baran, Ph.D.
Department of Chemistry

I, Marcell Bogner, have read this Memo of Understanding and confirm that I understand and agree with the contents and I will comply with the institute's COVID 19 policies.
