ESCOP 2025 - Your Abstract Submission Outcome

Dear Péter Czingráber,

Thank you for submitting your abstract to the European Society for Cognitive Psychology Meeting 2025 which will be held at The University of Sheffield, UK. I am pleased to inform you that, following an anonymous review by two independent assessors that your abstract 'Control under pressure - the influence of aversive motivation on adaptive control', has been accepted to be presented as a Poster.

If you have not already registered for the meeting, please do so as soon as possible so we can confirm your attendance at the following link:

<https://www.escop2025.com/registration-and-fees>

During registration, you can book on a variety of social events during the conference, satellite events, and Saturday social events. Please visit our website for more information on these activities.

As a reminder, the presentation types are:

Regular talk: A regular oral presentation with accompanying slides consisting of a 15-min talk + 5 mins for questions.

Blitz talk: Blitz-talks are concise contributions of a 5-min talk + 5 min for questions.

Poster: Presentation of an A0-sized, portrait-formatted poster during one of the 1.5 hours poster sessions.

An overview of the programme is available here. A detailed programme including a schedule of all presentations will be published on the website in the coming weeks.

Thank you once again for submitting your abstract to the European Society for Cognitive Psychology Meeting 2025.

If you have any questions, please contact escop@eventmanagementdirect.co.uk

Yours sincerely
