Grading system Utrecht University

The grading system at Utrecht University might differ significantly from the grading system you are used to. Our university uses a 10 point grading system: 1 is the lowest grade and 10 the highest. In practice grades 1-3 and 9-10 are rarely awarded. The lowest passing grade is a 6.

In some cases, letter codes are used instead of numerical grades. These are:

F/NC/NV/NVD/O/ONV/OV	Fail
P/V/VD/VOLD/VO	Pass
VR/VRIJ/EX	Exemption
NC	Not completed
ND/NP	Not participated

In a few specific programmes, Utrecht University also uses the Anglo-American letter grading system (A to D, F = Fail).

Grading policy

Grades are given on an absolute basis, which means that teachers test the extent to which students have sufficiently achieved the learning objectives, and do not grade on a curve. Students need to receive a passing grade for all courses that are part of their degree programme in order to graduate. It is not possible to compensate a low grade on one course with a high grade on another course.

At Utrecht University a weighted average grade is calculated by multiplying all numerical grades on the International Diploma Supplement with the credits obtained for that course, and by dividing this sum by the sum of credits. The average is built up gradually, and only the final average will be recorded on the International Diploma Supplement. Utrecht University includes grades obtained in the first year of studies in the calculation of the weighted average grade.

Substitute test

If students fail a course but score at least a 4, they are given one opportunity to take an additional or substitute test in order to pass the course. If they fail this as well, they must take the course again. Students can retake a course as often as they need to achieve a passing grade. Only the passing grade is recorded on the International Diploma Supplement.

Grade distribution

The Grading Tables below provide information on the grading culture at Utrecht University by showing the statistical distribution of passing grades awarded in all Bachelor's and Master's courses of Utrecht University. This (unweighted) distribution is based on all passing numerical grades for courses offered by Utrecht University in the three most recent academic years, obtained by students enrolled at Utrecht University. The grades are rounded off to whole and half numbers. The Grading Tables are updated annually.

The Grading Tables cannot be used to determine whether a student belongs to the top 10% (or any percentage) of their class. The Grading Tables show the distribution of all passing grades, not of the weighted average grade.

Grade conversion

The Grading Tables may be used for grade conversion to other grading systems (if both higher education institutions use Grading Tables). For the purpose of grade conversion, Utrecht University has made her Grading Tables available in the online tool EGRACONS (egracons.eu). You can find more information on grade conversion there and in the ECTS User Guide.
