Hi All,

I'm so excited to see your posters and presentations tomorrow! Still can't believe your 8 weeks with us are ending. Please see below for a rundown of tomorrow's activities.

If you let me know names of guests ahead of time - please let them know they have been registered with building security. They will need to stop at the security desk when they arrive and provide a photo id. Security will print them a paper badge and give them access to the elevators to the 40th floor. Once on our floor, they'll see the sign to get to our office suite.

Everyone, please arrive by 9:30am tomorrow.

- For Posters – There will be boards and pins available in the NITMB Office suite near the couch in the back. Please pin your poster according to your board number.
- For Slide Presentations – Please bring your laptops for backup, in case there are any issues. Everyone's slides have been added to a master slide deck that also includes other information for the MCs. We will run all presentations off the same laptop and slide deck, so all you will need to do is walk to the podium when it's your turn to present. At 9:30am, we can/will do a quick flip through of everyone's slides to ensure the order and animations are correct. There will not be enough time for you practice your full talk, only enough time to double check the visuals.
