

Programme of Events

Bowland College, Lancaster University

Day One - Friday 29 May

13:00 – 14:00 Registration (Charles Carter Building)

14:00 – 14:15 Welcome by Dr. Deborah Sutton, Director of Postgraduate Studies

14:15 – 15:45 Session One (Charles Carter Building, Room TBC)

Panel One: Technologies of History Chair: TBC

Immigration Patterns in Nineteenth Century England, James Perry (Lancaster University)

Teargas - we haven't got the foggiest: Deconstructing the Ambiguities of Creeping Legitimisation, Alex Mankoo, University College London)

'When you are the camera and the camera is you': Tracing Techno-Feminism through the Woman Photographer, Vanessa Longden (Lancaster University)

15:45 – 16:15 Break

16:15 – 17:30 Keynote Address Introduction: Vanessa Longden

Title TBC

Professor Ludmilla Jordanova, Durham University

17:30 – 18:30 Wine Reception (Ruskin Library)

Introduction by Professor Stephen Wildman, Director of the Ruskin Research Centre

19:30 Conference Meal at Nice Bar & Restaurant

Day Two – Saturday 30 May

9:00 – 9:30 Coffee (Charles Carter Building)

9:30 – 11:00 Session Two

Panel Two: Expressions

Chair: TBC

Jewels of the Flesh: The Corporeal Relationship between Jewellery and the Body in the Early-Modern Period, Sarah Ann Robin (Lancaster University)

Trickery, tactics and everyday life in the post-war library, Olivia Havercroft, (The University of Manchester)

Guatemalan Street Art (Title TBC), Kate Bailey (Lancaster University)

11:00 - 11:30 Break

11:30 – 13:30 Session Three

Panel Three: Contested Spaces & Places

Chair: TBC

Relocating Research, Contesting Space: The Post Office Research Station 1958-1975, Jacob Ward (University College London)

"Not Waiting for Pugin?" A defence of the early Commissioners' Churches built under the Church Building Act of 1818. William Walker (University of Central Lancashire)

'[O]ne always gets so many conflicting and contradictory experiences:' Professor Charles Saroléa's Impressions of Soviet Russia and the publishing of politics in 1920s Britain, Ellis James Stacey (University of Birmingham)

13:30 – 14:30

Lunch

14:30 – 16:00

Session Four

Panel Four: Transitions & Turning Points

Chair: TBC

"Women", "Lads" and "Workmen": Gender, Household, Labour and the Derbyshire Lead Industry, Matthew Pawelski (Lancaster University)

'Fu Manchu' and the British Empire, 1931 – 1937, Mike Pilkington (Sheffield Hallam University)

'As for those who fail to understand...we have no other alternative than to exterminate them': Resistance and the Emergence of 'Genocidal Moments' in Japanese Imperialism, 1937-1945, Kelly Maddox (Lancaster University)

16:00 – 17:30

Session Five

Panel Five: Rhetoric & Reason

Chair: TBC

"Reason is such a box of quicksilver that it abides nowhere; it dwells in no settled mansion": The differing applications of "Right Reason" in mid- to late Seventeenth Century England, Martin Walker (Lancaster University)

Michael Mann's theory for the study of Italo-Norman Nobility, Hervin Fernández-Aceves (University of Leeds)

'Et reuera scias quia hoc bellum carnale non est sed spirituale': Battle Rhetoric in the Gesta Francorum et aliorum Hierosolimitanorum, Connor Wilson (Lancaster University)

17:00 Informal walk around town

Day Three – Sunday 31 May

9:00 – 9:30 Coffee (Charles Carter Building)

9:30 – 11:00 Session Five

Panel Five: Processes of Power

Chair: TBC

Ancient Royal Rites in England in the Age of Reformation, László Kövecses (University of Glasgow)

'The very next blood of the King': the Law of Female Dynastic Succession in English History, Lynsey Wood (Lancaster University)

Britain, South Africa, and soft power diplomacy: initial findings, Daniel Feather (Liverpool John Moores University)

11:00 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 13:00 Session Six

Panel Six: Social Order

Chair: TBC

Science Lectures in the Press: Davy's Audience at the Royal Institution 1801-1812, Hattie Lloyd (University College London)

The agricultural educational provision for women in England to 1939, Carrie de Silva
(Harper Adams University)

Independent working class education (IWCE) – a 'sub-culture' of the British Labour movement building socialism in Yorkshire 1918 – 1939, Pushpa Kumbhat (University of Leeds)

13:00 – 14:00

Lunch

14:00 – 15:15

Keynote Address

Introduction: Vanessa Longden

Title TBC

Dr Claudia Stein, University of Warwick

15:30

Conference Closes