Dear Gabor Zsiboras,

Congratulations! You have been nominated to be a 2014 L. Austin Weeks (LAW) Undergraduate Grant award recipient. A representative from a University geology department has presented you as an outstanding geoscience student within your department at (University name). We are currently accepting applications, and have 69 awards to give to deserving universities and students. Should you and your department be selected to receive this award, your department will receive $500, and you as the student will also receive $500. As the student nominee, you would be able to apply the funds towards tuition, necessary field equipment, books, research and geology related travel expenses.

If you and your university department are identified as a final candidate for an award, a representative from the AAPG Foundation team will contact you directly. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact the AAPG Foundation using the information below.

We wish you continued success in your academic endeavors.

Sincerely,

American Association of Petroleum Geologists Foundation
